Talking Points: Email Communication

- How does email compare to traditional mail?
- Is there a danger to sending out too many emails, forcing people to unsubscribe?
- Is there a system that would enable citizens to only get the emails that pertain to them or their groups or networks?
- Is email an effective 2-way form of communication between the community and the City?
- If not, what could be done to enable citizens to use email to better connect with City staff and officials?

Is it more important to have more cross walks or speed bumps
