

ST. ELMO=S GROUP
a get-together of parents of children with special needs

Monday,
November 9, 2009
8:00 - 10:00 P.M.

St. Elmo=s Coffee Pub
2300 Mt. Vernon Ave., Alexandria
(at the corner of Del Ray Avenue)

When is it time to seek academic help for your child?
What should you ask from the school?
What can you do yourself?

Guest Resources:

Ruth Heitin and Kevin Dohmen will discuss:

- * when to seek an evaluation*
- * what kinds are most useful*
- * strategies to work with the school*
- * nuts and bolts of techniques to improve academic performance in class and at home*

*This will be part two of three with presenters from Alexandria Network for Student Resources (ANSR)
a network of professionals (including coaches, an advocate, a tutor, an organizer, a psychologist, and an early childhood specialist) who work with students with a variety of learning issues.*

Check out their website at <http://alexandriansr.com/>

Questions? Call Anne Lipnick at 703-706-4552 or 571-274-2866 (cell)
email: alipnick@acps.k12.va.us