1. Cases without good service – Counsel or pro se litigant must call the Court to discuss the status of the case and why service has not been requested. Your case may be dismissed if you do not call Judges' Chambers by the deadline.
  2. Setting Trial Dates – For all cases, including those cases involving pro se litigants
    - (a) If counsel and/or pro se litigants ARE communicating.
All counsel and/or pro se litigants MUST communicate with each other to agree on a trial date and/or exchange availability for trial.
      - (1) Preferred Method – Counsel call Judges' Chambers together on a conference call to set the trial date.
      - (2) Least preferred method - One person (preferably counsel) calls the Court to set the trial date. That person obtains available trial dates, communicates with the other counsel/party, and then calls Judges' Chambers again to reserve the trial date. Deadline for calling the Court to reserve the trial date is listed below.
** Trial dates go quickly. If counsel does not call back quickly (on the same day), the trial date may have been given to another case and would no longer be available for your case.
      - (3) When a trial date is set - Counsel and/or pro se litigants shall submit a fully endorsed Uniform Pretrial Scheduling Order to the Court.
