Sheriff Participates in Remembrance Ceremony for Lynching Victim
On August 8, the Alexandria Community Remembrance Project held a ceremony honoring the memory of Benjamin Thomas, a Black teenager abducted from the jail and lynched 123 years earlier. The program included students from Alexandria City High School, Reverend Professor Quardricos B. Driskell, Reverend Dr. Taft Quincey Heatley, the Shiloh Baptist Choir, Poet Laureate Zeina Azzam and Sheriff Casey. In his remarks, Sheriff Casey apologized for law enforcement officials who not only failed to protect Benjamin Thomas but who took actions that allowed the lynching to occur and for the assailants to go free. After the program at Market Square, participants crossed the street to lay a wreath at the actual lynching site at the southwest corner of King and South Fairfax streets.

Records Team Achieves Top Marks in State Audit
The Virginia Compensation Board conducts Local Inmate Data System (LIDS) audits of jails by reviewing documents, interviewing staff, and testing LIDS reports for accuracy. This data is used to determine funding to localities and helps the state forecast space and staffing needs. ASO recently underwent an on-site LIDS audit covering a 30-month period, and auditors awarded the jail a rating of “exceptional” and a score of 95% with a built-in error rate +/-5%. Both Sheriff Casey and the auditor congratulated ASO’s Records staff on their outstanding work.
