

In a few words, what are your favorite things about Alexandria?

54 responses

Which of the following best describes you?

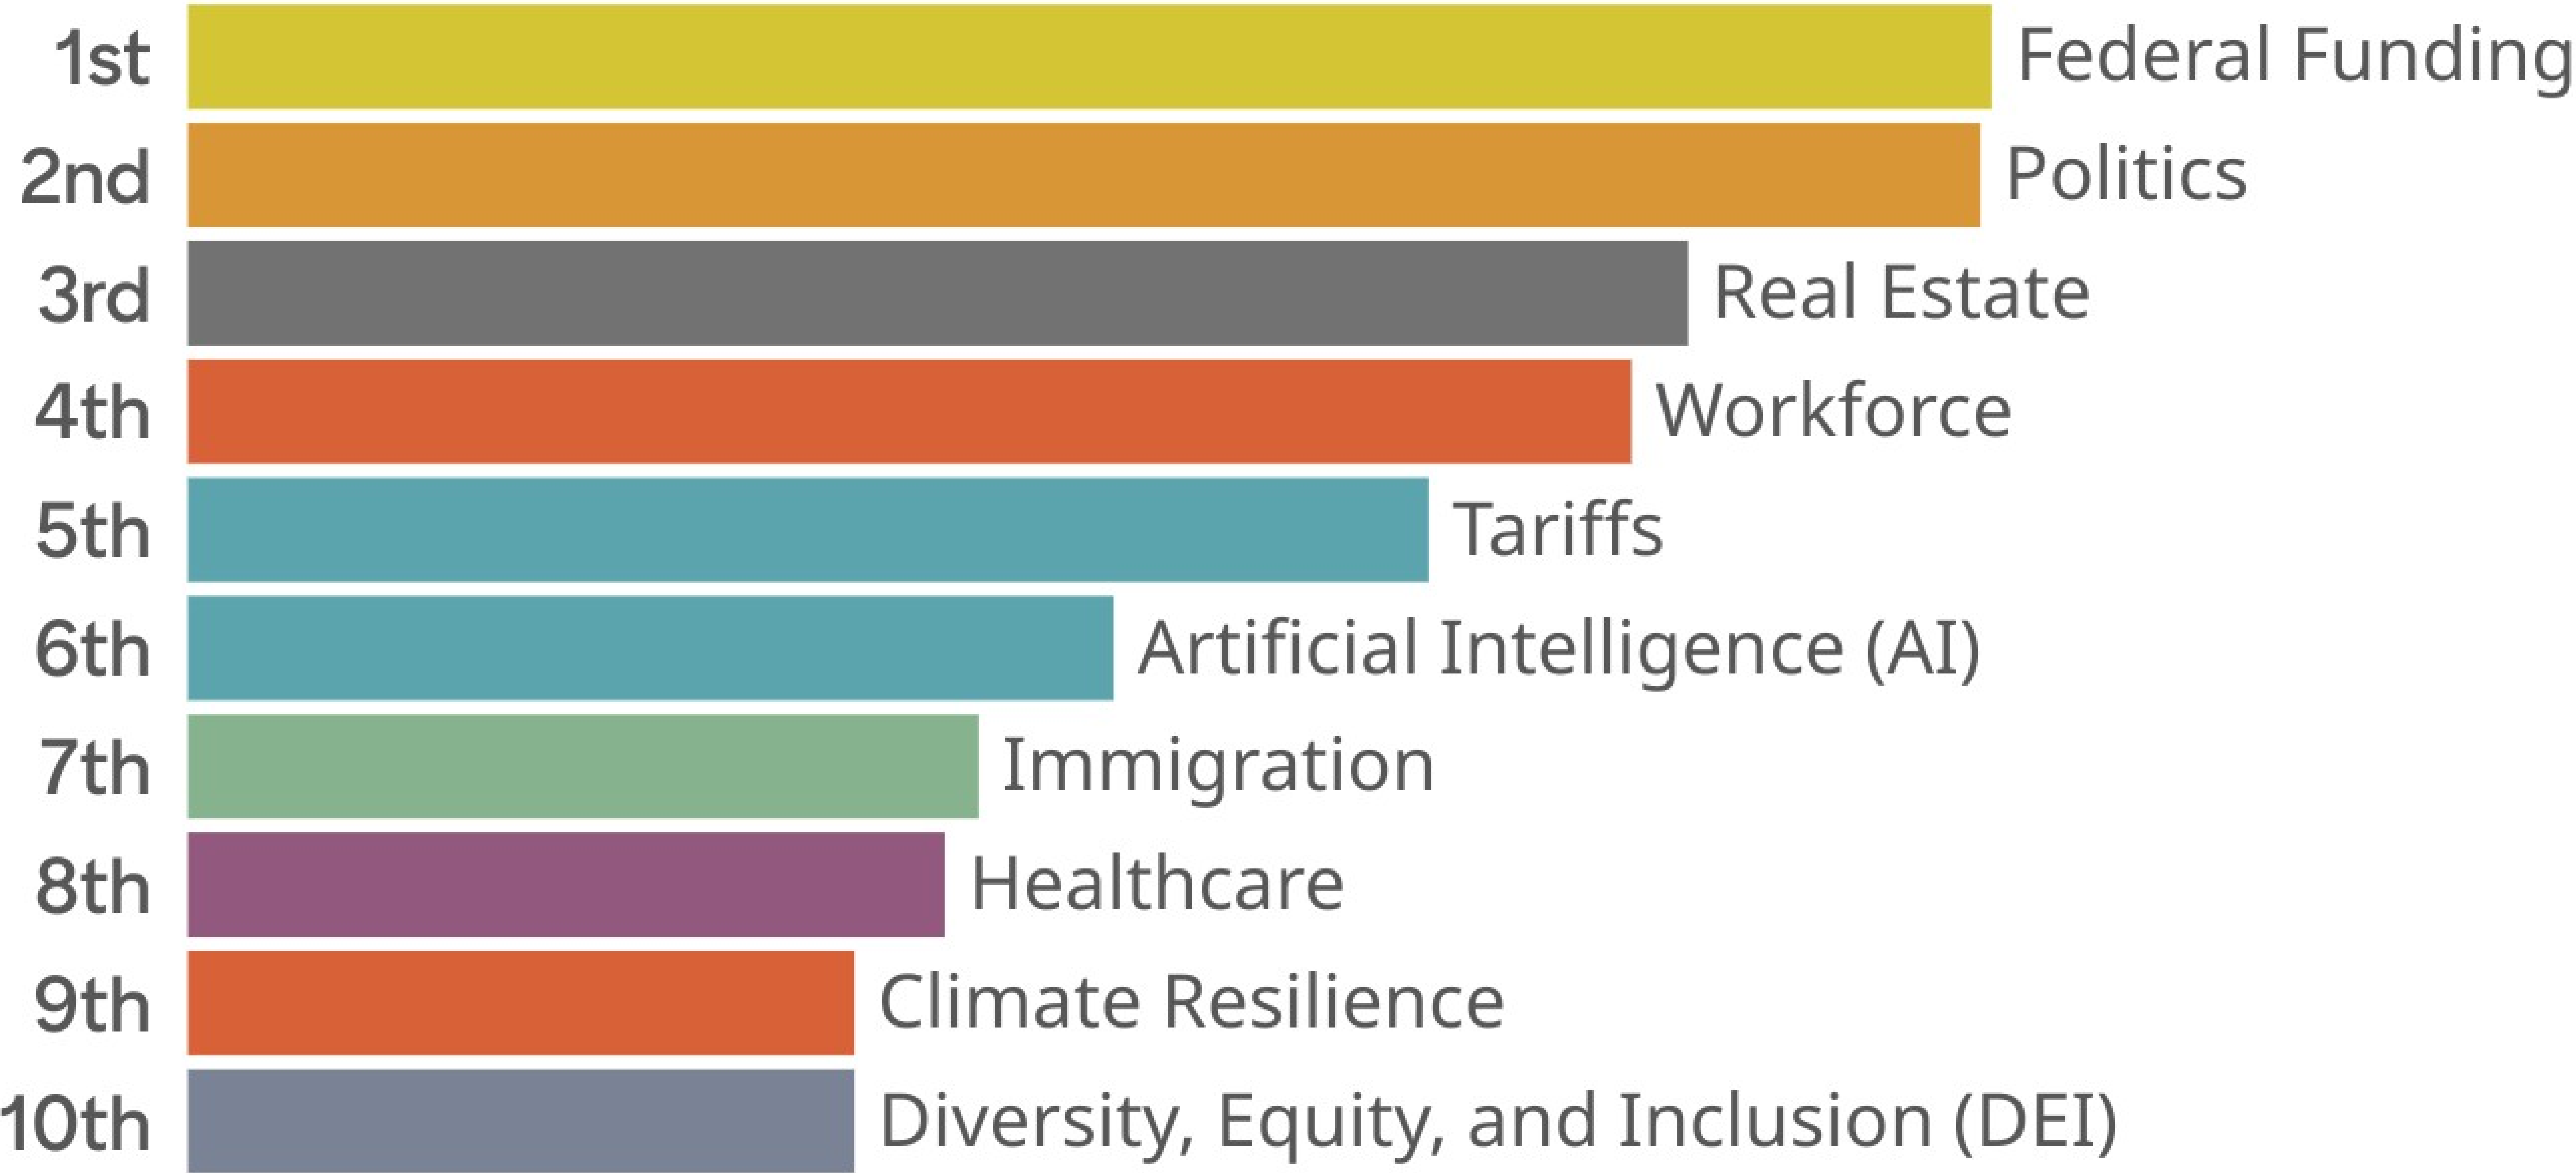

In a few words, what does economic development look like to you?

52 responses

Please rank these according to how concerned you are that it will impact Alexandria's economy 1 = highest level of concern.

On a scale of 1-5, how would you prioritize uses in future developments?

Are there other emerging industries or growth areas we should consider?

Digital based businesses

Sports tourism.

Large meeting and convention space

Experiential entertainment and retail
Convention center Ai tech firms

Sports tourism

Sports practice facilities

Creative industries

Music venues, outdoor space(s) with stage for multiple uses, how to expand the tourism benefits beyond Old Town by other uses elsewhere

Are there other emerging industries or growth areas we should consider?

Food hall

Media companies

Winter sports facilities

Professional sports

Incubator/place for innovation

Associations

Distilleries.

Regional tourism
Businesses opening late and transportation
available late too

Are there other emerging industries or growth areas we should consider?

Small sized multi purpose convention center to be used for out of town groups and city needs for a larger venue than we currently have.

Nightclubs

Performing arts space

Higher education facility

Performing arts center

Please rank these themes in order of importance to you for the future health of the economy? 1=most important

What is missing from the themes list?

Creative economic incentives.

Leveraging the rich cultural diversity of our community - for example, local restaurants in the west end.

Assistance to underserved communities who want to start or grow a business.

Tourism

Tourism

Expand tax base

Federal contractors

Need to provide some greater reality to what types and scale of economic development moves our commercial /residential tax balance.

What is missing from the themes list?

Developing multiple neighborhoods

Diversify revenue and how to fund the city budget

Taking advantage of the City's multicultural and multilingual population to ensure that there businesses that serve them so they don't go elsewhere

In a few words, what are Alexandria's competitive advantages in real estate and development?

29 responses

What questions do you have?

How are you engaging nonprofit and faith communities in these conversations?

How are you engaging all community voices and ensuring representation of individuals who aren't always at the table or English is not their primary language?

How are you working with the schools?

Look at desirable manufacturing opportunities and industries under the light industrial category