We Are Here

Monitoring & evaluating the implementation of the Children
& Youth Community Plan 2025

- The Plan sets 3 aspirational goals for young people, ages 0-21 and is a roadmap for how our community will work together to create the conditions for all young people to thrive in Alexandria.
- 2,100 community members, 88% of whom were youth, were engaged in the development of the Plan.
- The result is a plan that centers equity while preventing harmful experiences and promoting positive ones.
- Approved by City Council and the School Board in April 2021.
- Updated every five years.

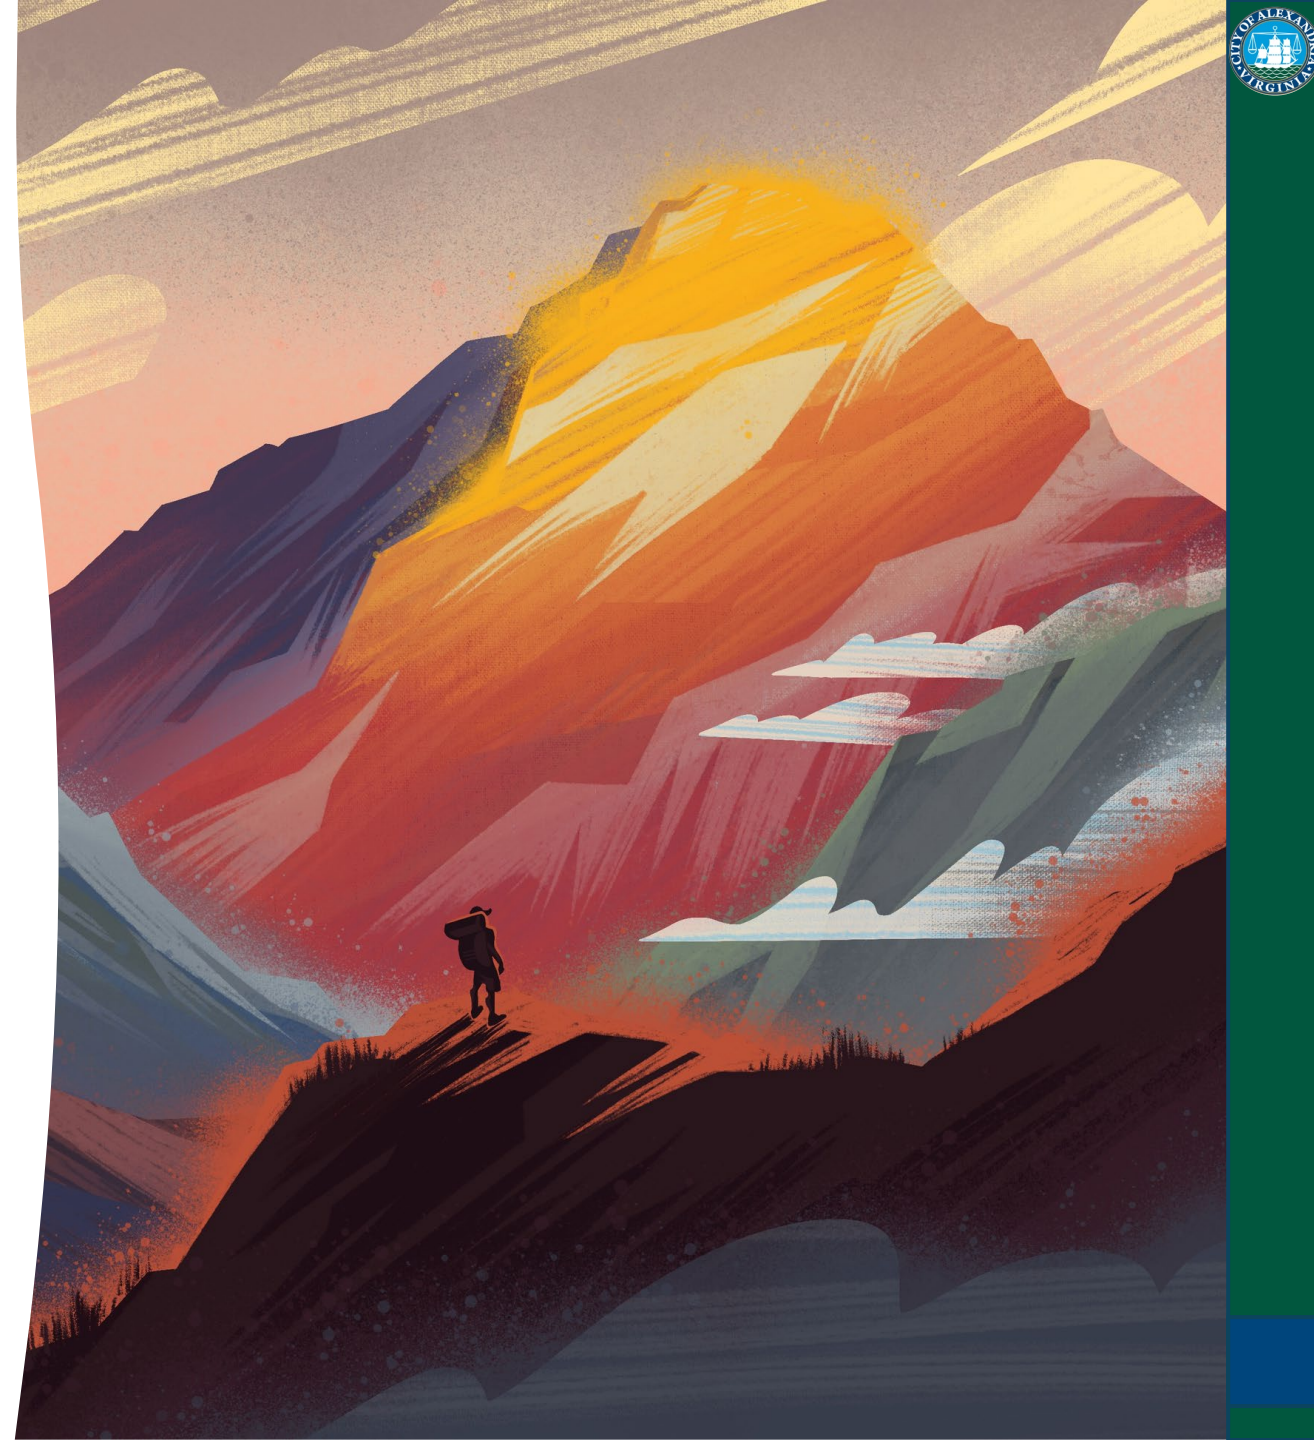

WHERE WE ARE

- How much have we done since April 2021?
 - 80% of the Plan's 169 action steps are either in progress or fully implemented
 - 19 CYCP Report Cards created
 - 2 Comprehensive Progress Reports published
- How well did we do it?
 - 62% of CYCP Tactic Owners reported progress in 2022
 - 24% of CYCP Tactic Owners reported progress in 2023
- Is anyone better off?
 - 58% of the indicators have improved since their respective baseline year
 - 56% of the indicators with disparities have improved since their baseline year
 - 43% of the indicators show disparity ratios greater than 2

Examples of Accomplishments

- ~500 students have been engaged in workshops about preventing substance use, teen pregnancy, and sexual and domestic violence delivered by 28 Youth Peer Educators who have been employed by the City
- 78,000+ free condoms have been distributed since condom dispensers were installed at community sites in Alexandria to prevent unintended teen pregnancy
- ~1,840 community members have attended free trainings where they built their skills in trauma-informed approaches, building community resilience, suicide prevention, and identifying and responding to signs of mental illnesses and substance use disorders among youth
- 350+ resources have been compiled in an online Resource Directory for Youth & Young Adults that includes health services, social services, employment programs, college and career supports, and out-of-school time opportunities
- 830+ youth service providers and caring adults participated in free trainings on how to strengthen their relationships with youth
- 800+ youth have participated in a program that built their leadership skills in Alexandria
- 100% of the youth who graduated from the piloted Jr. City Academy reported being more knowledgeable and comfortable accessing city resources, and 70% reported seeing themselves as a leader in their city after graduating from the program
- ~1,400 youth have been connected to mentors
