

The Alexandria Reentry Council presents the

Fair Chance Business Summit

#JustHireOne

In April 2016, the White House issued a challenge to businesses to take on the “Fair Chance Business Pledge” to improve their communities by eliminating barriers for those with a criminal record and create a pathway for a second chance.

The Alexandria Reentry Council invites area businesses to attend an informational and networking event to encourage employers to hire individuals who have had involvement in the criminal justice system.

When: Thursday, July 28

Schedule: 9 – 10 a.m.
Networking & Light Refreshments

10 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Keynote Speaker: U.S. Deputy Secretary of Labor, Chris Lu

Panel Discussions

Q&A

Where: Beth El Hebrew Congregation | 3830 Seminary Road | Alexandria, VA 22304

Why Attend?

- Learn why it is beneficial to your business and community to hire those with a criminal record
- Learn about the Federal Bonding Program and Work Opportunity Tax Credit
- Meet employers who are already making a difference
- Meet service providers who train, educate and place this special population
- Learn about the Fair Chance Business Pledge, a White House initiative

To RSVP for this event, visit <https://fairchancesummitjusthireone.eventbrite.com>

The Alexandria Reentry Council is a community collaboration addressing the needs of formerly incarcerated residents of Alexandria.

Department of Community and Human Services