

PURPOSE STATEMENT

The Alexandria Council of Human Service Organizations improves human services through cross sector collaboration to benefit the entire Alexandria Community resulting in an innovative and integrated human services model.

OUR VALUES

- Partnership: We seek to collaborate on ideas and initiatives that will best serve the needs of our community.
- Results: We are committed to having long-term, measurable impact on people's lives. We seek to address root causes, and we realize that this requires us to address issues at multiple levels.
- Learning: We continuously strive to build our knowledge and expertise to benefit ourselves and our community.
- Integrity: We are committed to positive intentions and the highest ethical values.
- Diversity: We support people of different backgrounds working together, as peers to address a shared concern, and encourage sustained relationships and greater understanding.
- Excellence: We challenge ourselves to do the best work that can be done.
- Adaptability: We willingly meet the changing needs of the community.
- Respect: We treat everyone with respect.
