

create a separate license class for alternative energy providers, and guidelines for identifying businesses that qualify for the lower tax rate would need to be established.