

THE ALEXANDRIA CAMPAIGN ON ADOLESCENT PREGNANCY
PRESENTS

THE STATE OF TEEN PREGNANCY ANNUAL DATA PRESENTATION

20th Anniversary Celebration

A VIRTUAL EVENT

The community event will include the annual Alexandria teen pregnancy data presentation by the Alexandria Health Department, a proclamation by Mayor Justin Wilson, and a celebration of Alexandria Campaign on Adolescent Pregnancy's (ACAP) 20 years of unwavering dedication to reducing teen pregnancy through evidence-based approaches and strong alliances between City agencies and community partners, including the Health Department's Teen Wellness Center and Alexandria City Public Schools.

The event is free. Join the event on Zoom, or visit alexandriava.gov/ACAP for the link.

OCTOBER 29

5:30 - 7 p.m.

