Grant: Criminal, Social Justice Programs
Purpose: To support groups working to end the criminalization and over-incarceration of youth in the United States, particularly groups working to advance state policies that restrict the juvenile justice system’s use of incarceration and expand the use of community-based programs for youth; to foster an end to the practice of trying, sentencing, and incarcerating youth in the adult criminal justice system; and promote the fair and equitable treatment of youth of color who come into contact with the juvenile justice system; and to support policy and system reforms to improve the lives of low-wage working people in the United States, with a focus on securing their basic legal rights to safe, healthy, and fair conditions at work. Specifically, the program awards grants to groups working to advance reforms designed to hold employers accountable for wage theft; advance reforms to prevent severe illness, injury, and death on the job; and advance workers’ rights in complex, fissured employment arrangements through research and strategic thought leadership.
