WELCOME

The meeting was called to order by Tim Peterson, Chair of the Children, Youth & Families Collaborative Commission (CYFCC). Deborah Warren announced two commissioners were selected as 2014 Salute to Women Award Winners. Joyce Rawlings was honored with the Youth Community Services Award (Adult) and Cynthia Skinner is the recipient of the Rising Star Award. Andria Cook noted that Glen Hopkins was selected as 2014 Man of the Year by the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority. Tammy Mann is Keynote Speaker for the event.

INTRODUCTION OF KATE GARVEY, NEW DCHS DIRECTOR

Kate Garvey, the newest member of CYFCC, took over the helm of the Department of Community and Human Services in February. She comes to Alexandria from Montgomery County, MD., where she served as Chief of Youth and Family Services/Social Services Director. Prior to her tenure in Montgomery County, she served as Executive Deputy Director for the Allegheny County Department of Human Services.

REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF DRAFT JANUARY MEETING NOTES

Sean McEneaney moved approval of the meeting notes as submitted. After a second by Andria Cook, the motion passed unanimously.

PRESENTATION AND APPROVAL OF CHILDREN & YOUTH MASTER PLAN

A number of amendments were submitted proposing changes to the draft plan. The Chair outlined the process for considering changes: each author describes the amendment, which is then discussed and voted upon. After considerable discussion, the amendments were adopted and a motion to approve the plan was made by Dan Solomon, seconded by Glenn Hopkins, and passed unanimously.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Andria Cook, Co-Chair of the Outreach & Membership Committee, reported that recruitment for volunteer positions on CYFCC committees is continuing. No applications have been received thus far. There are promising leads, however, with regard to youth with an interest in serving on committees.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Ron Frazier announced the date of the Project Discovery Walkathon will be April 26.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
