

SCHEDULED CAREER FAIRS & OPEN HOUSES

(East Coast – Maine to Florida)

March 6, 2016

A word of caution: check with both the sponsor and the hosting facility for listed Career Fairs and Open Houses before leaving home. Pre-registration or early registration can often make for easier access. Many Career Fair providers now require that you pre-register and do not accept resumes onsite. Some require early registration if not holding Military ID. When attending Career Fairs be sure to bring more resumes than you plan to distribute. When attending an Open House be sure to bring a half-dozen copies of your resume. Also, note the resources listed at the end of this career fair listing. These resources are categorized by type of search. Please feel free to forward this listing to others you feel can benefit from the information and ability to plan ahead. To receive your own copy of the listing please request such at: jjmditt@careerfairs-eastcoast.com. Next distribution scheduled for March 20, 2016.

The website www.careerfairs-eastcoast.com is current.

NOTICE: Strongly recommend pre-registration for those events you wish to attend. Many sponsoring career fair providers now REQUIRE pre-registration. Always check with the facility holding the event prior to leaving home!

Special notes:

A series of particularly beneficial websites, offered by Steve Gallison, Manager, Business Services and Staff Development as well as Director, and his staff at Professional Outplacement Assistance Center, Columbia, Maryland include:

www.dllr.state.md.us/poac for links to downloadable websites for recruiters, agencies, and employers.
www.dllr.state.md.us/poac/metalist for a major (mega) list of employers in the region. POAC's www.dllr.state.md.us/poac/dir features the most active employers in the area. POAC's list also includes:

Federal Jobs and related information about federal programs at <http://opm.gov/>, and Gallison points out that <http://Govexec.com> will provide excellent insights into the Federal Government. For Disabilities and Employment Issues Gallison recommends: <http://www.dol.gov/odep/>.

Below are useful websites, categorized by several specialties, military transitioning, security clearance, federal employment, salary, interviewing, cost of living, IT, and general interest.

For Salary and Negotiations information Gallison offers: http://salary.com/salary/layoutscripts/sall_display.asp; and www.shapironegotiations.com/Resources/Newsletters.cfm. Also, <http://drewsoftware.com/Download.html>; <http://queendom.com/test/>.

Here are some of the more popular sites for specific job search, career fairs, and career management information:

For Job Seekers looking for pertinent, relevant terms for their resumes you might visit the Occupational Information Network's database of job descriptions at <http://online.onetcenter.org/help/online/tips>. There are descriptive terms for most of the standard career fields.

For companies that require security clearances it is strongly recommended that the following format be incorporated into your resume. In your "Heading" (your name, street address, city and telephone) be sure to show your e-mail address and your security clearance immediately below. These are the first two items the recruiter and the company want to know whether at a job fair, when pulling your resume off the web or when you send your resume electronically, by fax or snail-mail.

Check www.InformationCareers.com for IT opportunities outside of the areas requiring security clearances. More and more opportunities are being identified in Competitive Marketing, Information Management and Knowledge Management fields. Currently those without clearances will need to show previously held positions that required a clearance. Check www.IntelligenceCareers.com for positions listings. The latest edition to this family of websites is www.ThinkingJobs.com, a site for opportunities that do not require a security clearance.

Another excellent resource for the Job Seeker is www.careerxroads.com for the quality information on web sites, and also for niche sites and the Nonprofit arena. When looking at Nonprofits and you require financial information go to www.guidestar.org.

A site for Technology Professionals that lists technical groups and their meetings, by geographic or subject area is www.JobCircle.com/public/events.

A site for nonprofits, their management, general data and salary information is BoardSource, formerly the National Center for Nonprofit Boards, is www.boardsource.org.

Check out the web site www.idealists.org for quality information and periodic Job Fairs for the Nonprofit arena usually scheduled with area colleges and universities. You can also post your resume with this site.

For Job seekers both in and outside the Washington/Baltimore area that are looking for listings outside the mid-Atlantic area, check the listed career fair providers for the listings of their scheduled career fairs across the US.

Websites of Career Fair Providers and Portals for individuals holding US Security Clearances:

ClearanceJobs.com www.ClearanceJobs.com is a Dice Holdings Company web site for individuals holding active clearances with DoD, DoE, NRC and NSA. Individuals can post their resume as well as look at posted positions calling for cleared personnel. The search for positions can be by state if desired. DICE is the one niche site still having great success is connecting IT job seekers with employers.

ClearedConnections.com www.clearedconnections.com is yet another resource for the individual who holds a security clearance. Like the other sites, it offers free uploading of job seekers resumes, has a page for the job seeker and another for the employer. The site also lists current industries that are growth or receiving large contracts. Employers are encouraged to search the site for resumes that may fit their requirements. Like all the other sites offering free services to the holder of a clearance the site is accessible to all employers requiring cleared personnel.

ClearedJobs.net www.clearedjobs.net a Veteran-owned ClearedJobs.Net offers thousands of online security-cleared CONUS/OCONUS positions with leading defense and intel contractors, as well as Cleared Job Fairs and Cyber Job Fairs for transitioning military to meet face-to-face with premier employers. ClearedJobs.Net is committed to helping transitioning military succeed in the cleared and cyber communities. Corporate Gray.com www.corporategray.com - Corporate Gray was established in 1994 to help transitioning and former military personnel connect with employers in print through their publication (The Military-to-Civilian Transition Guide), in person at their Corporate Gray "Military Friendly" Job Fairs, and online through Corporate Gray Online. They have set the standard with regard to hosting quality job fairs, publishing a first-rate career transition book, and running a state-of-the-art military-to-civilian career transition website. To date, they've given over 4 million copies of their book to transitioning service members, held over 150 military-focused job fairs across the country, and connected thousands of veterans with employers through their website. Job seekers benefit from attending their military-focused job fairs (both in-person and virtual), reading The Military-to-Civilian Transition Guide, and using Corporate Gray Online to search and apply for jobs of interest. Companies benefit from using their range of recruiting services to connect with military veterans – in print, in person, and online. Check out the latest job search and transition advice articles on the Corporate Gray Blog (<http://blog.corporategray.com>).

- CivilianJobs.com www.civilianjobs.com. Web site for transitioning military and spouses offers free online recruiting. Caution here, there are portions of this web site that are not free.
- DefenseCareers.com www.defensecareers.com. Producer of Job Fairs for individuals with Security Clearances and those with unique skills where because of skill sets possessed the company will sponsor the individual while obtaining clearance for individual.
- DoDIntelligenceJobs www.DoDIntelJobs.com is a job portal for individuals holding clearances. It is now partnering with Janet Giles' JobZoneOnline in sponsoring career fairs for transitioning military. A new web site that like most Job Portals offers the opportunity to key in specific job titles, locations, etc., to see what is available. To use the web site the individual should be holding a current clearance.
- IntelligenceCareers.com. www.IntelligenceCareers.com, aka USA DefenseIndustryJobs.com, offers resources and programs for those with clearances and who are interested in either connecting with the federal sector or with a contractor to the federal sector. This group periodically offers a one-day seminar on securing opportunities with DoD contractors and other organizations holding security clearance required positions. It also provides a guide to the value of the resume (of individuals holding a clearance) in the Intelligence Community upon request. The requestor must hold a currently valid clearance, Secret or higher or ask for this free service. Look for Intelligecareers.com's Career Guide online shortly – estimated 1 March 2014. Check the URL: <http://home.intelligecareers.com/careerguide>. As of February 23rd, the web sites will be known as USAJobZoo.com TOP SECRET and USAJobZoo.com PROFESSIONAL. Job Fairs are currently in abeyance for the foreseeable future.
- Military Stars www.MilitaryStars.com. A relatively newcomer focused to the military. Offers career fairs periodically plus other services for separating military personnel.
- SecurityClearanceEXPO www.SecurityClearanceEXPO.com offers cleared professionals and Military personal opportunities to meet and interview with Government contractors that support homeland security and various government agencies at our events.
- The Cleared Talent Network www.TheClearedTalentNetwork.com is a new organization and web site for job seekers with an active security clearance. It is a Maryland based company focused to serve both the defense and intelligence community in the metropolitan Washington, DC area. Job seekers can post their resumes free of charge and the web site is geared to connect individual job seekers as well as with employers. The organization is set up to offer a job board, a searchable resume database, email alerts of potential matches, periodic networking events and specific focused job fairs.
- Transition Assistance Online www.taonline.com is a long standing web site listing transition information and career fairs and hiring conferences scheduled across the country. It is always wise, however, to check the specific site after checking the taonline site as schedules sometimes change and do not get forwarded to other sites that collect and post the information.
- TransitionCareers.com www.transitioncareers.com. An independent facilitator of technical and security clearance career fairs on-site military installations nationwide. Provides a job board that is networked with 1000+ other job boards. Fairs are open to Military, Government Civilians, Contractors and Family Members that have access to the military installation where the event is taking place.
- USAJobZoo PROFESSIONAL. See IntelligenceCareers.com above for current information on Bill Golden's renaming of his web sites.
- USAJobZoo TOP SECRET. See IntelligenceCareers.com above for current information on Bill Golden's renaming of his web sites.

Web Sites Supporting the Military in Transition, Spouses and Veterans:

Chamber of Commerce, US www.uschamber.com/hiringourheroes/events is the US Chamber's new effort, begun in late 2010, in support of service members returning to the workplace. Key to this site is the ongoing listing of sponsored and co-sponsored career fairs focused to the returning service member, veterans, Reserve and Guard components and their spouses.. Upon entering the web page cited above the reader is offered a number of options while the listing of cities sponsoring career fairs is centered and offered by date of the career fair. Options include a Veteran's Advisory Board, Military Spouse Business Alliance connection, a newsletter, a useful conversion of military job titles to private sector titles – more effective than most; and resources on resume preparation.

Cinhouse.com www.cinhouse.com. The new web portal for military wives, claims to be the largest Military Spouse Job Network offering information on Health, Fitness, Finances, Base Communities and selection of branch of service for more focus. Not much on Job Search, the tools, techniques or resources. Quality of information less than expected. May develop more in the Chat Room.

ClearedJobs.net www.clearedjobs.net a Veteran-owned ClearedJobs.Net offers thousands of online security-cleared CONUS/OCONUS positions with leading defense and intel contractors, as well as Cleared Job Fairs and Cyber Job Fairs for transitioning military to meet face-to-face with premier employers. - MilitaryLeaders.com www.militaryleads.com specializes in recruitment and placement of Military personnel into civilian positions.
- MilitaryMOJO www.militarymojo.org is a new web site specifically focused to the transitioning officer and senior Non-Commissioned Officer. The group held three career fairs in 2013; and has four scheduled for 2014: Austin, TX; Virginia Beach, VA; Seattle, WA; and Washington, DC. The site also supports this same category of service member at their LinkedIn site where resume and career tips are offered. The LinkedIn address is: www.linkedin.com/groups/Military-MOJO-5063691. The group is also on Facebook, Google+ and Twitter. Both job seekers and employers can register for upcoming career fairs 24/7 throughout the year.
- Military Officers Association of America (MOAA) www.moaa.org is the nation's largest and most influential association of military officers. MOAA hosts the largest military-friendly career fairs in the Washington, D.C. area twice annually. Employers like Amazon, Chick-fil-A, L-3 MPRI, Lockheed Martin, Target, and more consistently attend to find high quality candidates. MOAA has teamed up with Milicruit to offer virtual career fairs – bringing employers and job seekers together from the comfort and convenience of their home or office – from anywhere with internet access! Other MOAA transition services include: resume critiques, career counseling sessions, transition lectures, a secure job board, a member-to-member state wide networking program, and a variety of helpful videos and publications. In addition to transition services, MOAA members have access to services specifically designed for them. MOAA's Legislative Update brings issues on Capitol Hill to you. Its financial tools can help you navigate the complex maze of military benefits. Our educational assistance program can help you put your children through college. Our Spouse and Families program helps your loved ones stay informed. If you are or were an officer in any of the seven services why not join MOAA.
- Military Spouses www.milspouse.com is a new site established for the spouses of those serving in the military on active duty. Offers periodic virtual career fairs for the spouses at www.militaryspousecf.com. The site offers information and counsel on the various aspects of military and military spouse life with resources covering deployment, family, careers and education, relationships, a magazine, blogs and more. Offers a free Military Community e-Newsletter.
- Military Spouse Employment Partnership www.msepjobs.com is the new web site specifically for military spouses. DoD has set up a military spouse partnership with employers, currently 79 and growing. This partnership is to ensure quality and professional opportunities equal to skill sets held by spouses, in and around military installations. Supporting links include: military Spouse Network; Military Spouse Career Center; Military Spouse Blog: SpouseBUZZ; and Latest Military Spouse and Family News.
- NCOA www.ncoausa.org Congressionally chartered to support current and former military enlisted and their families in transition and post transition efforts. Affiliated with www.MilitaryJobWorld.com to provide online transition information. Provides career fairs offering a variety of focused attendance. Some are for the senior enlisted side, some for CPOs, Warrantes, and Officers.
- RME.org www.RME.org. Regional Military Employment Program for Members Only of Tidewater area employers and Military Transition and Employment offices. Offers posting of opportunities for separating military. Posting via jobsearch@ffscnorva.navy.mil. Web site: www.ffscnorva.navy.mil.
- Senior Military in Transition www.seniormilitaryintransition.com, is a new web site for the transitioning senior military. Senior as defined as one leading others, so the site offers resources for those in the ranks of NCO and Officer. The site is wide ranging in terms of resources. Depth and currency of information is unclear. Worth the initial search for information. Some of its postings are very good for those in leadership at all ranks although hyped as senior in rank.

Solid Hires www.solidhires.com is a veteran owned career and education resource expo provider for the South East USA. Provides job fairs, webinars and seminars. Teams with TAOnline.com for job fairs.

The Wounded Warrior Mentor Program www.woundedwarriorprogram.com is a site that is particularly helpful for this particular aspect of job search, the job seekers, the mentors, coaches and counselors. Troops to Teachers www.proudtoserveagain.com the web site for transitioning military interested in pursuing teaching positions within the fifty states. Each state has its own representative who explains the requirements including certifications required and timing requirements.

USAJobZoo PROFESSIONAL. See IntelligenceCareers.com above for current information on Bill Golden's renaming of his web sites.

VetJobs.com www.vetjobs.com, is the largest military related job board on the Internet. VetJobs is ranked as one of the very top job boards while at the same time being a niche job board. It is supported by and partially owned by the VFW, and endorsed by VVA, Naval Reserve Association, Veterans of Modern Warfare, and others. Workforce Magazine ranks it among its leading job boards, as does AIRS. Over 3,000 employers use VetJobs, and candidates do not have to register to view jobs or apply, they can apply directly. Lists of upcoming Job/Career Fairs are found in VetJobs monthly newsletter. This site is free to veterans, transitioning military and their family members. With its latest version of its web site in August it now has 200,000+ visitors each month. This is a strong positive for military and former military as the market tightens considerably and the media is beginning to give greater recognition of the values to employers in hiring former military. Look for an excellent listing of military focused career fairs that are included as only one of the options of assistance to the transitioning service member and veterans interested in securing and/or changing positions.

Veterans Jobs www.Veterans.jobs assists separating military personnel in the transition from active duty to job opportunities in the civilian workplace. This transition is primarily into the private sector as opposed to the governments, Federal, State, County and Local, and excludes the majority of NGOs and the Association world. A most helpful aspect of this web site is the ability of the separating/retiring service person to enter his/her Military Occupation Specialty (Code) into the URL www.XXX.jobs. The individual's MOS replaces the "XXX" in the preceding example. In other words, the service member whose MOS is 2891 would key into the browser the URL www.2891.jobs to see what opportunities can be found in the private sector.

Veterans Opportunities www.vetopps specializes in job fairs for transitioning military and veterans.

Here are several free LinkedIn sites that may be found useful to separating military: (The Military-to-Civilian LinkedIn group is sponsored by Bradley-Morris, an organization offering services to transitioning military, www.bradley-morris.com.

- Military-to-Civilian transitioners: <http://www.linkedin.com/groups?groupDashboard=&gid=1870541>.
- Wounded Warriors: <http://www.linkedin.com/groups/WoundedWarriors-4211984>.
- Nevertirees: <http://www.linkedin.com/groups/Nevertirees-4361255>.

Websites Offering Translation of Military MOS/MOSC/MOC Ratings

A strong caution here: Never, never just use the translation but start with that information, then research the company and see how what you actually have done and/or been doing fits in with what the company is doing, particularly where they have job posting along the line of what you actually do. Also, ask former members of your unit or larger grouping what they are doing with what they did.

CareerOne Stop www.careerinfonet.org/moc Brings up careeronestop. Center of the page asks the transitioning service member to enter the MOC (Military Occupational Classification/code). Options or supplements to the MOC are Keyword Search and/or Menu Search by using service member's military title, or branch of service. CareerOneStop services the five DoD Services but does not cover the NOAA or USPHS.

DoL Military to Civilian Occupation Translator www.acinet.org/acinet/moc/default.aspx?nodeid=213 is the U.S. Department of Labor's translator of Military to Civilian information. This site is also the sponsor of the O*Net Military Skills Translator, <http://online.onetcenter.org/crosswalklisted> below.

Military.com www.military.com/veteran-jobs/skills-translator is viewed by many as a most user friendly site. On accessing the site viewer is asked for branch of service, pay grade and military job title (MOS/MOSC/MOC) MOC Rating Designator. Sub specialties and training are then asked for to allow for more customized search for potential matches. Considered the top translator by military recruiters and veterans.

Military2FedJobs www.Mil2FedJobbs.com is similar to the other links in this section in that it offers assistance in identifying federal job characteristics such as pay, grade, and duties.

Onetonline.org www.onetonline.org/crosswalk offers options for search words or identifiers. Gives an example for each option. Some onsite commentators have offered that for those holding combat arms MOCs the search is less helpful, even with the use of sub specialties. Unable to confirm commentary.

VA's Fed for Vets <http://mst.vaforvets.va.gov/mst/va/> brings up the VA page "Fed for Vets" powered by the VA for Veterans. The user has options at the top of the page that begin with Military Skills Translator; then Resume Builder; Career Assessment, Coaching, Job Search, Resources, and Need Help? Branch of service is required, then Pay Grad and third the Military Job Title. For this site to be effective the user must have an eBenefits Account Number. This can be obtained at: <https://ebenefits.va.gov/benefits-portal>.

Websites of Government Agencies Offering Specific Resources and Job Application Information:

National Resource Directory www.ebenefits.va.gov and www.nationalresourcedirectory.gov/home/about_us is an inter-agency web portal. It is considered the most helpful single government site for Wounded Warriors, Service members, Veterans, their families and for caregivers. It is a federal Government site that provides information and links to probably the largest number of federal, state and local resources. This includes Federal, State and local government agencies and veteran service organizations. Additionally, non-profit and community-based organizations, academic institutions and professional associations are also linked to the site. The visitor can best use the site by identifying what is being looked for or sought, then using the options focused to that need. This site is a collaborative effort of the U.S. Defense Department, the Department of Veterans Affairs and the Department of Labor.

Feds Hire Vets www.FedsHireVets.gov is a One-Stop Resource for federal employment information. It offers a list of Veteran Employment Program Offices who promote Veteran recruitment, employment, training and development (as well as retention) within their particular agency. Use these contacts to gather specific information on employment in those agencies. Also has a link to USAJobs to begin your search. However, would encourage using the link above initially in your search for opportunities with the federal sector. This site also has link to Education and Training opportunities.

Useful Links for Veterans Seeking Federal Employment

Determining Veteran Preference www.dol.gov/elaws/vets/vetpref/mservice.htm should be used to assist in determining your Veterans Preference.

Federal Jobs By College Major www.usajobs.gov/ResourceCenter/Index/Interactive/JobsByCollegeMajor#icc. Use this site to help you determine which Federal Positions you most likely qualify for based on your education.

Federal Qualification Standards, by Series & Grade After you have identified the federal positions you believe you qualify for based either on your military experience or your education, use the following link to help in determining the qualifying standards by both series and grade:
www.opm.gov/qualifications/standards/indexes/num-ndx.asp.

Job/Skills Translator for Military Personnel See www.military.com/veteran-jobs/skills-translator for assistance in translating your military experiences to civilian skills. Note that this site also is referenced above. It also has the ability to add military training and schools attended. This last is definitely helpful in applying for federal positions.

A caution: All Government advisors and quality coaches counsel to never use the same resume in applying for multiple positions in the federal government. It is viewed as a most likely disqualifier. Every Government resume should be focused to the specific position being sought. Be aware of, and use where appropriate, the qualifications noted in the Federal Qualification Standards, guided by the Series and Grade being applied to.

Websites of Career Fair Providers for individuals holding or eligible for a US Security Clearance:

Websites of Service Providers for Seekers of Federal Employment and Sites for Cleared Personnel Seeking Government Positions and contractors to the Federal Government:

Avuecentral www.avuecentral.com is another resource for job seekers of federal positions. The site offers a variety of services and resources and is a good source for those seeking a federal position for the first time.

ClearedJobs.com. www.clearedjobs.com. This site is primarily for the job seeker but is also used by recruiters, both in the Government and outside. The site matches job seekers who hold active or current DoD, DoE and State Department security clearances with opportunities in the federal sector. The job seeker, after registering can search by key word, by location and more. Offers articles and identifies "hot" industries and positions as well as employers who have contracts with the noted federal organizations above.

- Federal Career Corner www.federalcareercorner.com. This is a good source for searching for Federal positions and information on applying. Offers current tips on the better ways to reach in to vacancies; and offers some very helpful information on wordsmithing. Offers a free electronic news letter. You must register for blog, newsletters and online class. See the web site for details. The Resume Place can be contacted at 800-480-8265 or 410-744-4324. Kathryn Troutman’s book Ten Steps to a Federal Job, 2nd Edition, published in 2009, has now been superseded by her book, Federal Resume Guidebook, 5th Edition. Published in May of 2011.
- TransitionAdvantage. www.transitionadvantage.com. The web site of Karol Taylor and Janet Ruck, both retired federal employees who are trainers, presenters and certified coaches who offer resume and job services coaching. Their web site spells out the price for a federal resume that is based on the General Schedule Grade one is seeking. All of their coaches are certified and have federal experience in their backgrounds. Taylor can be contacted at 410-447-2923, and Ruck at 410-992-7917. These two can also be reached at myfederal@transitionadvantage.com. Ruck and Taylor have a new book, Find Your Federal Job Fit released by JIST in November 2011. The book, Guide to American’s Federal Jobs was published in June 2009. It is the only book on federal job search that tells the reader to target the search to be most effective and save time. Most beneficial to Federal Government job seekers is Karol Taylor's LinkedIn Group, "Federal Job Search Support." Taylor offers substantive counsel with examples and keeps the member group informed on the status of hiring in the federal government. She also periodically includes a particular Federal Government Vacancy Announcement.

USAJobZoo.com PROFESSIONAL See IntelligenceCareers above for information on the renaming of the IntelligenceCareers.com web sites to better focus the mission and scope of the two web sites.

USAJobZoo.com TOP SECRET. See IntelligenceCareers.com above for current information on Bill Golden's renaming of his web sites.

Other useful resources for the seeker of federal employment include the several government weekly newspapers: Federal Times, www.federaltimes.com; Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps Times, all at ".com." The value of these newspapers, even the free online aspects, gives you names, organizations and activities that can be followed up on for further dialog or adding substantive content to communications. The Washington Post, is another source and another consideration.

To a lesser extent the Washington and Baltimore Business Journals, www.washington.bizjournal.com; www.baltimore.bizjournal.com; and Washington Technology, <http://washingtontechnology.com> in their free side have valuable articles on the federal sector periodically, and always have articles on Government contractors.

Web Sites for Salary, and Interviewing Information and Cost of Living Comparisons:

- Associations Check your professional associations for information on salary and compensation information.
- Cityrating.com, www.cityrating.com. Web site for searching information on potential or actual relocations for career or other considerations. Good for identifying such as cost-of-living comparisons.
- CNNMoney www.CNNMoney.com offers information on cost-of-living comparisons for consideration of relocation, or for transitioning out of the service. Additional sources include the community Chambers of Commerce.
- Computer World www.computerworld.com offers an annual salary survey for the basic career fields in the IT community. It is the most current and accurate of the posted Surveys.
- Glassdoor.com www.glassdoor.com is in effect a member of the wikipedia concept where individuals post salary information anonymously. Another useful source is LinkedIn. Additionally, information on employers, and resources is also available. A particular Interview area of interest is the posting of questions asked by employees and potential employees and the responses often given.
- GuideStar.org www.GuideStar.org is the National Database of Nonprofit Organizations. Outstanding resource for financial information on nonprofits.
- Jobstar.org www.jobstar.org offers government, nonprofit and other salary survey sources.
- Payscale.com www.payscale.com is newer than Salary.com but worth checking when looking for information on compensation.
- Salary Calculators Most of the better job sites have salary calculators. This includes Monster, Careerbuilder and the Wall Street Journal.
- Salary Information www.payscale.com. See Payscale.com above.
- Salary.com www.salary.com. Salary data and indicators of what one should be earning based on functional area of experience.
- The Wall Street Journal www.wsj.com offers salary information and surveys. However, be careful with the survey information. Look for the date of the survey and then add a year to its age, i.e., a 2009 survey should be considered a 2008 set of survey information. Therefore, add 2.3% for each year that the survey has been out. Again, a 2008 dated survey would have 6.9% added to reflect 2010 salary information.

U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics www.bls.gov offers numerous resources including compensation by position and range. Check its Occupational Outlook Handbook and its other links.
