

Alexandria Electoral Board
Minutes for meetings held on June 13 and 15, 2018

Chairman Brown called the June 13, 2018 meeting to order at 9:44 a.m. Present were the three members of the Alexandria Electoral Board (Susan B. Kellom, Bruce A. Brown and Jack Powers), Anna Leider, General Registrar, Angie Maniglia Turner, Elections Manager and eight members of the ascertainment teams (Alyssa Glomb, Bruce Dwyer, Linda Dwyer, Camille Fallow, William George, C. Jeff Herre, Kristin Langlykke and Dwight Horkheimer).

Election Day Discussion

The Board discussed the June 12, 2018, Dual Primary Election and voiced praise for Staff and election officers for the overall conduct of the election. The Board discussed issues with various polling places and agreed that a follow up letter should be sent to MacArthur regarding their not opening the building on time nor having sufficient lighting.

Provisional Ballot Hearing

Mr. Brown called the Provisional Ballot Hearing to order at 10:00 a.m. After determining that no one was present for the Hearing, the Board closed the Provisional Ballot Hearing. They agreed that if a voter arrived later, they would reopen the Hearing.

The Board determined that there were 42 provisional ballots for the Democratic Primary and 5 provisional ballots for the Republican Primary and referred them to staff for research.

The Board reviewed each precinct's Incident Report and Statement of Results, then turned the paperwork over to an ascertainment team to double-check the results tapes and vote totals. When the ascertainment teams completed their work, the Board announced there were no changes to the vote totals posted on Election Night.

At 3:36 p.m. Ms. Kellom moved to recess the meeting till 10:30 a.m. Friday, June 15. Mr. Powers seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

At 10:39am on Friday, June 15 Ms. Kellom moved to reopen the meeting. Mr. Powers seconded, and it passed unanimously. Present were the three members of the Alexandria Electoral Board (Susan B. Kellom, Bruce A. Brown and Jack Powers), Anna Leider, General Registrar, Angie Maniglia Turner, Elections Manager and Alyssa Glomb, Assistant Registrar. The Board had a discussion on sample ballots and voter complaints. Additionally, the Board asked that the time be added to the Non-routine worksheet.

The Electoral Board discussed the various provisional ballot situations.

Provisional Ballot Actions

At noon, the Board made the following decisions based on the recommendations of the General Registrar:

In the Republican Primary, the General Registrar recommended that the following provisional ballot count:

- The ID provisional ballot for the individual who provided the required copy of their photo ID by the noon deadline on June 15 count.

In the Republican Primary, the General Registrar recommended that the following provisional ballots not count:

- The ID provisional ballot for an individual who did not provide the required copy of their photo ID by the noon deadline on June 15.
- The provisional ballots for two individuals who were in the wrong precinct and did not go to the precinct where they were eligible to vote routinely.
- The provisional ballot for an individual who was not registered and for whom no evidence of registration could be found.

Ms. Kellom moved to accept the General Registrar's recommendation, Mr. Brown seconded the motion, and it passed unanimously.

In total, the Board voted to count one provisional ballot and reject four provisional ballots for the Republican Primary.

In the Democratic Primary, the General Registrar recommended that the following provisional ballots count:

- The provisional ballots for six individuals who applied for an absentee ballot but did not vote the absentee ballot.
- The provisional ballots for three individuals who claimed to register at the DMV because the DMV provided proof of their attempts to register to vote.
- The provisional ballots for three individuals who provided the required copy of their photo ID by the noon deadline on June 15.
- The provisional ballot for one individual who was shown as already checked in on the pollbook.

In the Democratic Primary, the General Registrar recommended that the following provisional ballots not count:

- The provisional ballots for four individuals who did not present the required copy of their photo identification by noon on June 15.
- The provisional ballots for three individuals who were in the wrong precinct and did not go to the precinct where they were eligible to vote.
- The provisional ballots for four individuals who registered after the deadline.
- The provisional ballots for six individuals who were not registered in their current precinct and for whom no evidence of registration could be found.
- The provisional ballots for two individuals who said yes to voter registration at the DMV, however it was for the voter's prior registration address.
- The provisional ballots for three individuals who submitted incomplete voter registration applications prior to the deadline.
- The provisional ballots for five individuals who presented no evidence of registration in the precinct but was eligible to vote in their old precinct or locality.
- The provisional ballots for two individuals who were on the prohibited voter list.

Upon discussion, the Board decided to pull the provisional ballot for the individual who was shown as already checked in on the pollbook and vote on the remaining 41 provisional ballot recommendations of the General Registrar. Mr. Powers moved to accept the recommendations, Ms. Kellom seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

After discussion, Ms. Kellom moved to count the provisional ballot for the individual who was shown as already checked in on the pollbook. The motion died for lack of a second, therefore the ballot was rejected and will not be counted.

In total, the Board voted to count 12 provisional ballots and reject 30 provisional ballots for the Democratic Primary.

After the provisional ballots were counted and the results were recorded, staff used this information to update the election results and produce abstracts for the election. The Board signed the abstracts and related paperwork.

The Board scheduled their next meeting for 9:30 a.m. on July 19.

At 1:50 p.m., Ms. Kellom moved to adjourn the Board Meeting. Mr. Powers seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.
