Accessory dwelling units (ADUs), commonly referred to as “in-law apartments” or “granny flats,” are secondary, independent living units with separate kitchens, sleeping areas and bathrooms. ADUs can increase housing options, accessibility and affordability throughout the city. Come to a community meeting and find out more! Snacks provided!

Accessory dwelling units typologies

When: Thursday, March 12 at 6:30 p.m.

Where: Mount Vernon Recreation Center (2701 Commonwealth Avenue)

For more information, visit alexandriava.gov/Planning or contact Sam Shelby at sam.shelby@alexandriava.gov or 703.746.3865. For reasonable disability accommodation or interpretation services, contact graciela.moreno@alexandriava.gov or call 703.746.3808, Virginia Relay 711.