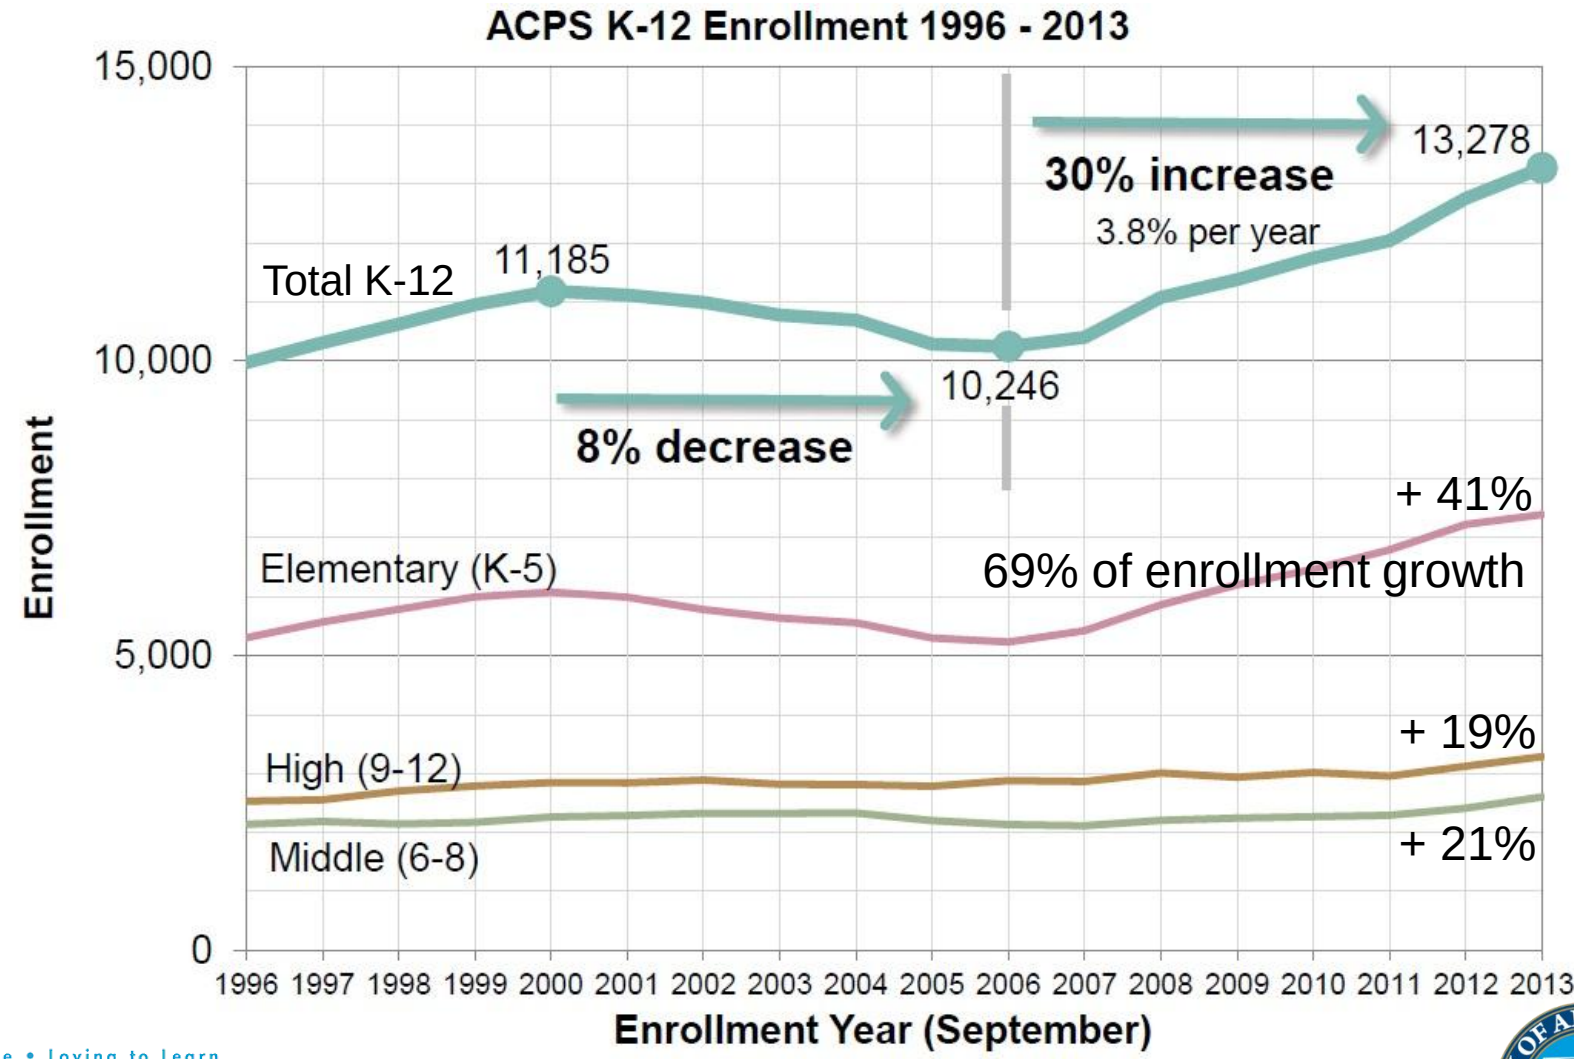
Forecasting By Geography

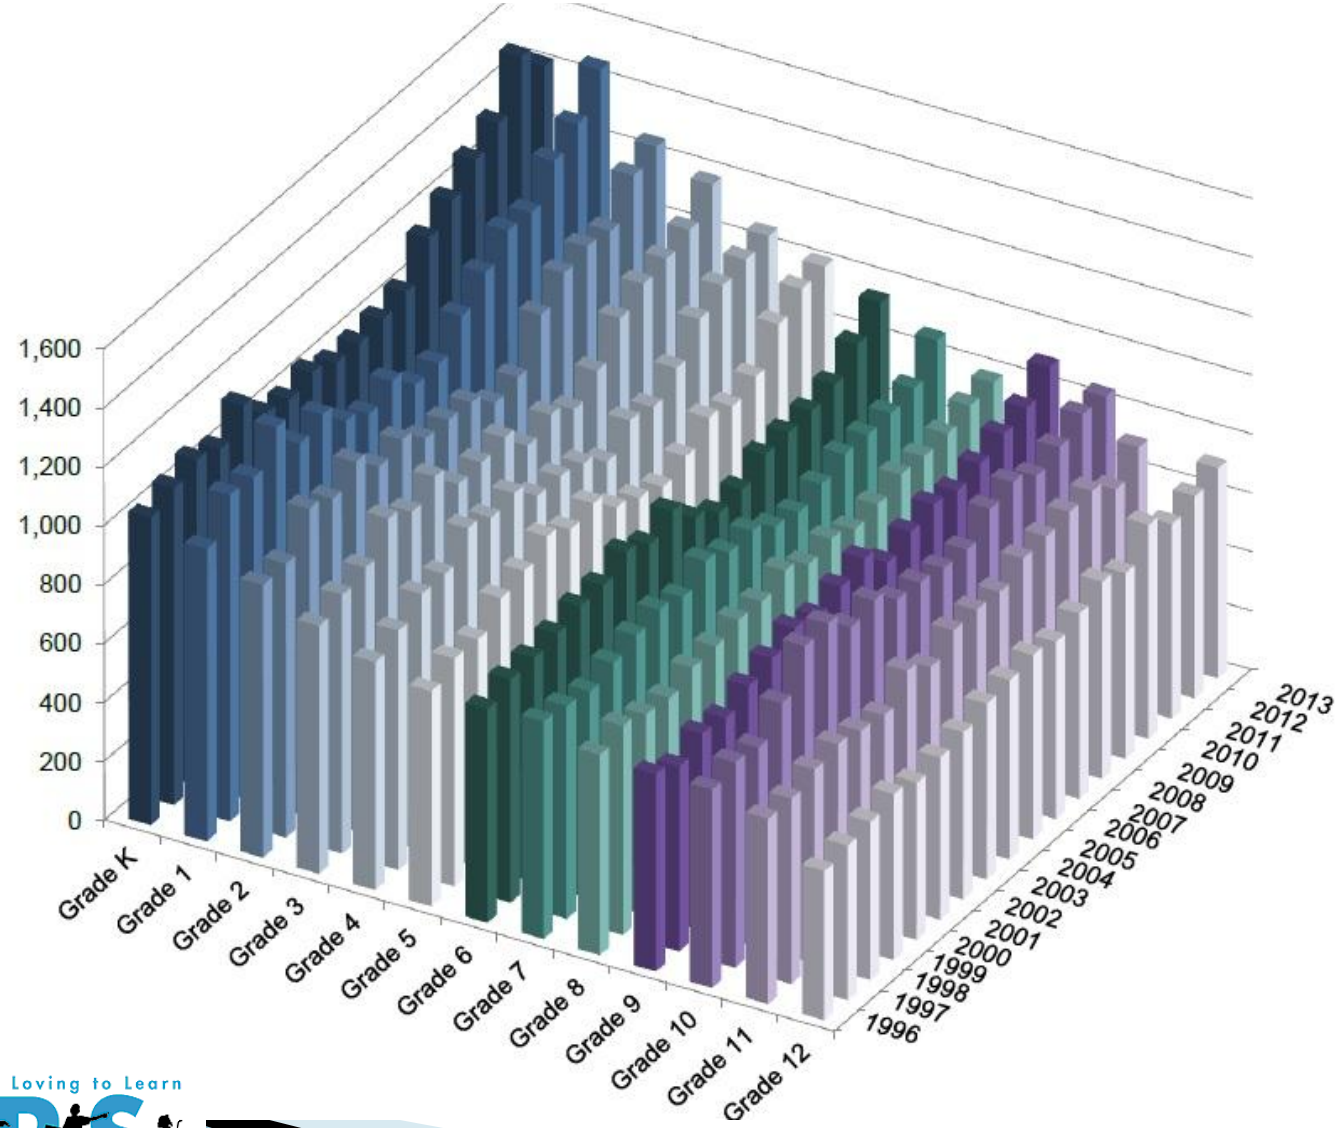
- Allocate division-wide enrollment forecasts by grade to geographic subareas
  - Review historic trends in enrollment by grade by geographic area
  - Relate enrollment trends to population and residential development characteristics
  - Forecast enrollment from existing development by geographic area
  - Add net enrollment from new development and redevelopment

Enrollment History by Level



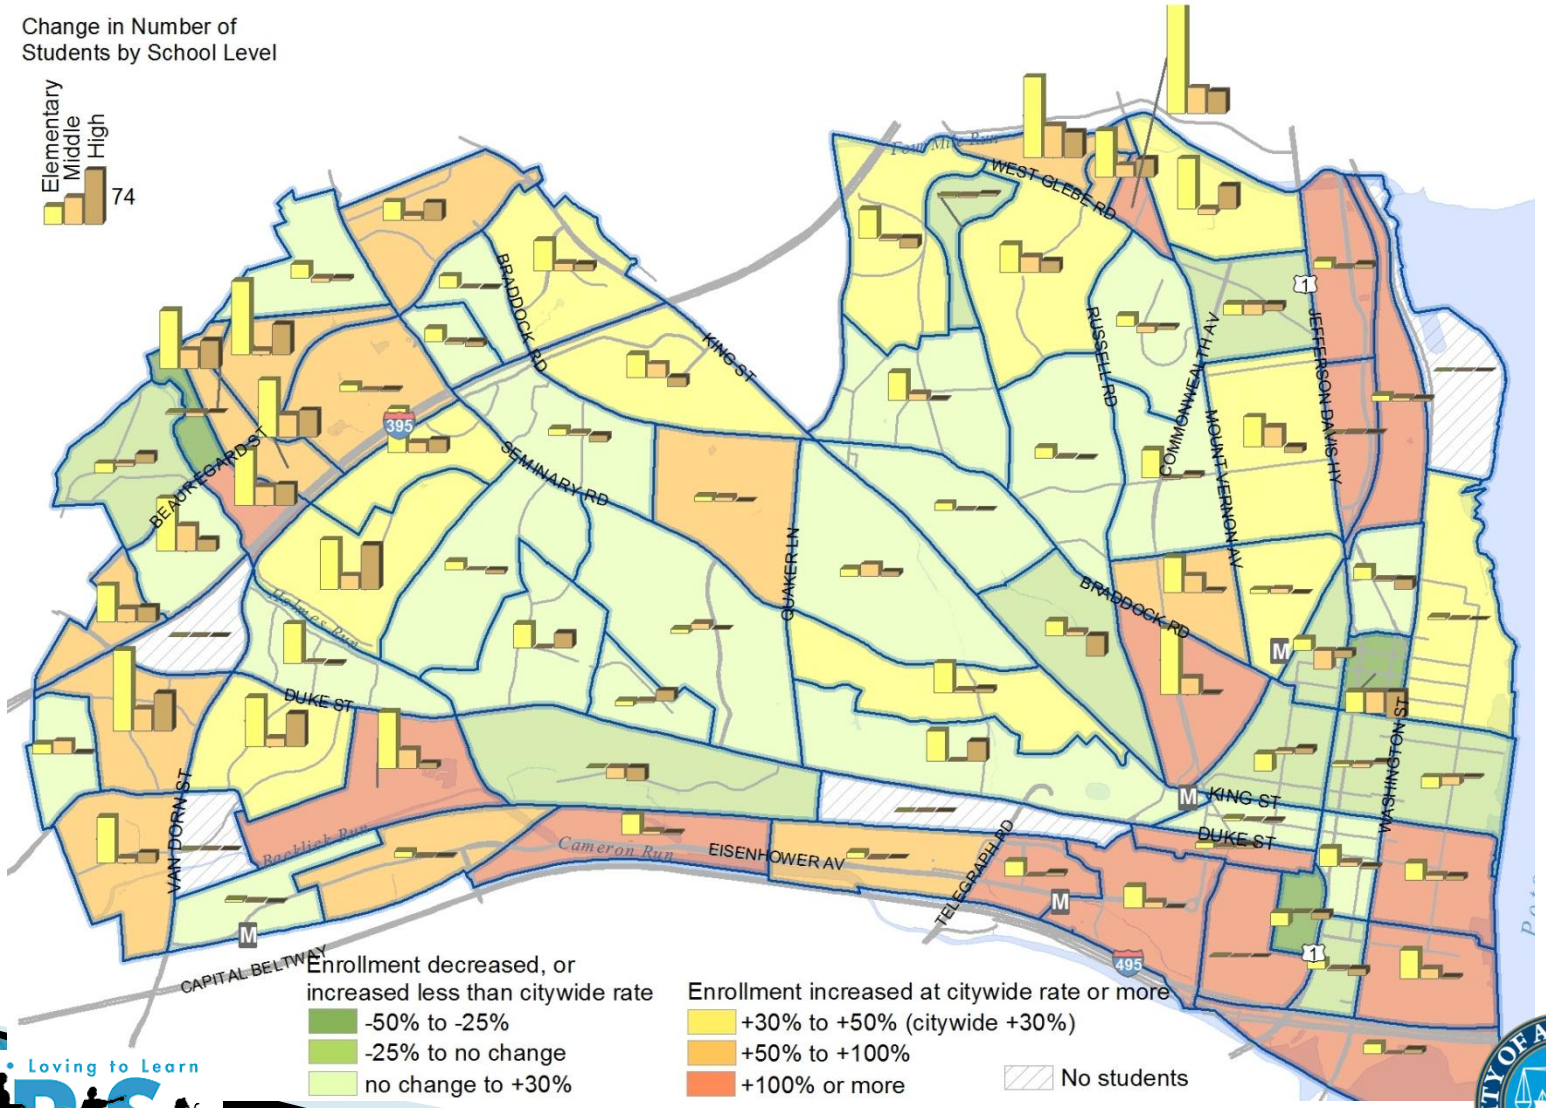
Learning to Live • Loving to Learn
ACPS
Alexandria City Public Schools

Enrollment History by Grade



Learning to Live • Loving to Learn
ACPS
Alexandria City Public Schools

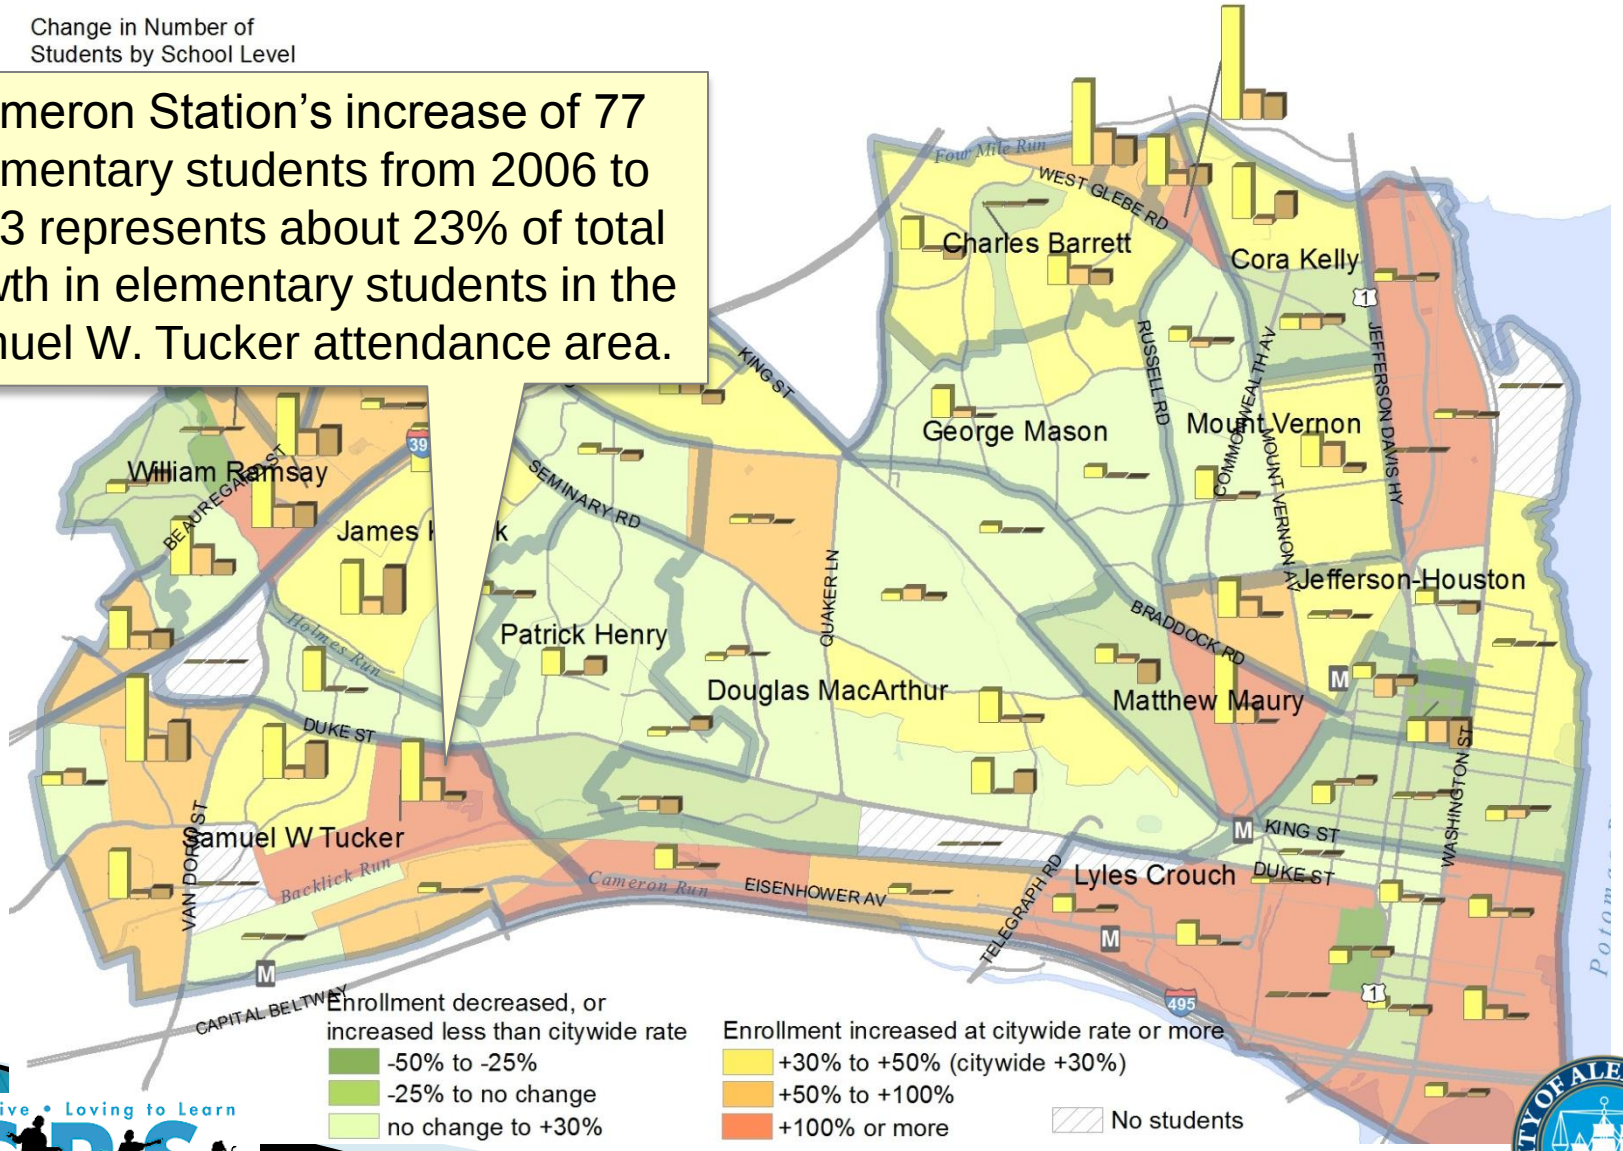
Enrollment Change Since 2006



Enrollment Change Since 2006

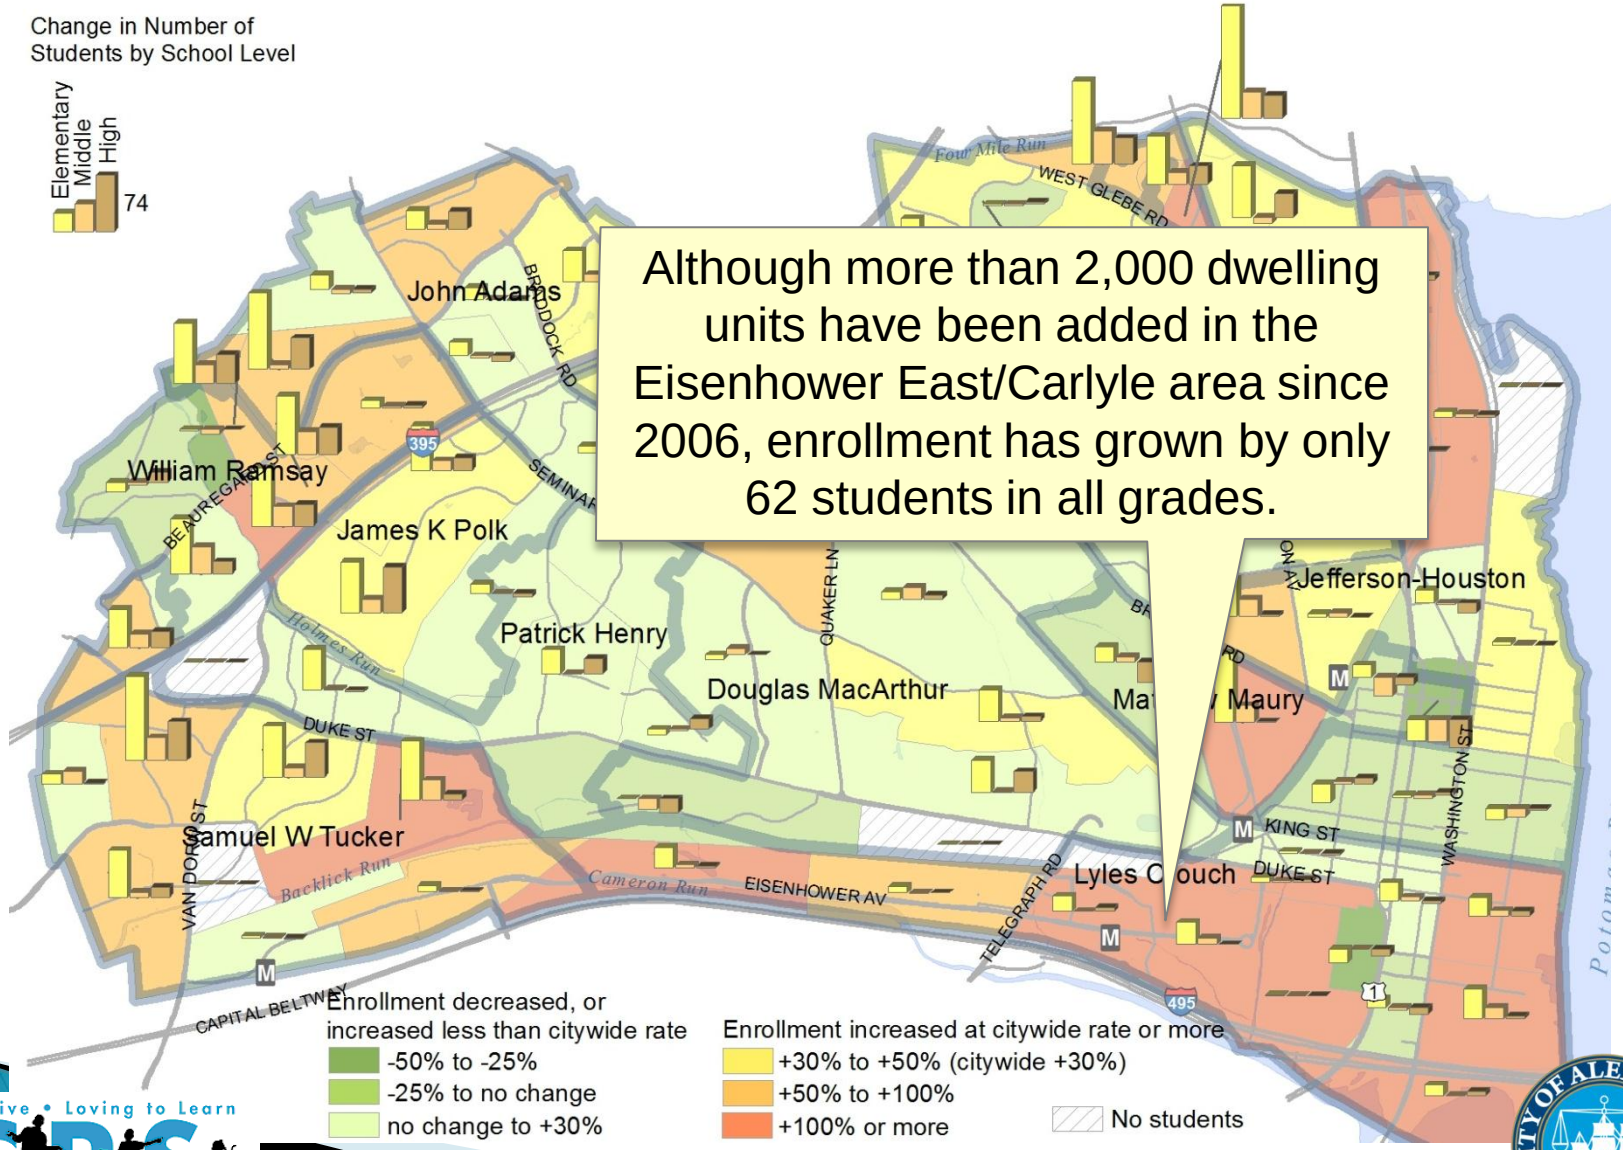
Change in Number of Students by School Level

Cameron Station's increase of 77 elementary students from 2006 to 2013 represents about 23% of total growth in elementary students in the Samuel W. Tucker attendance area.

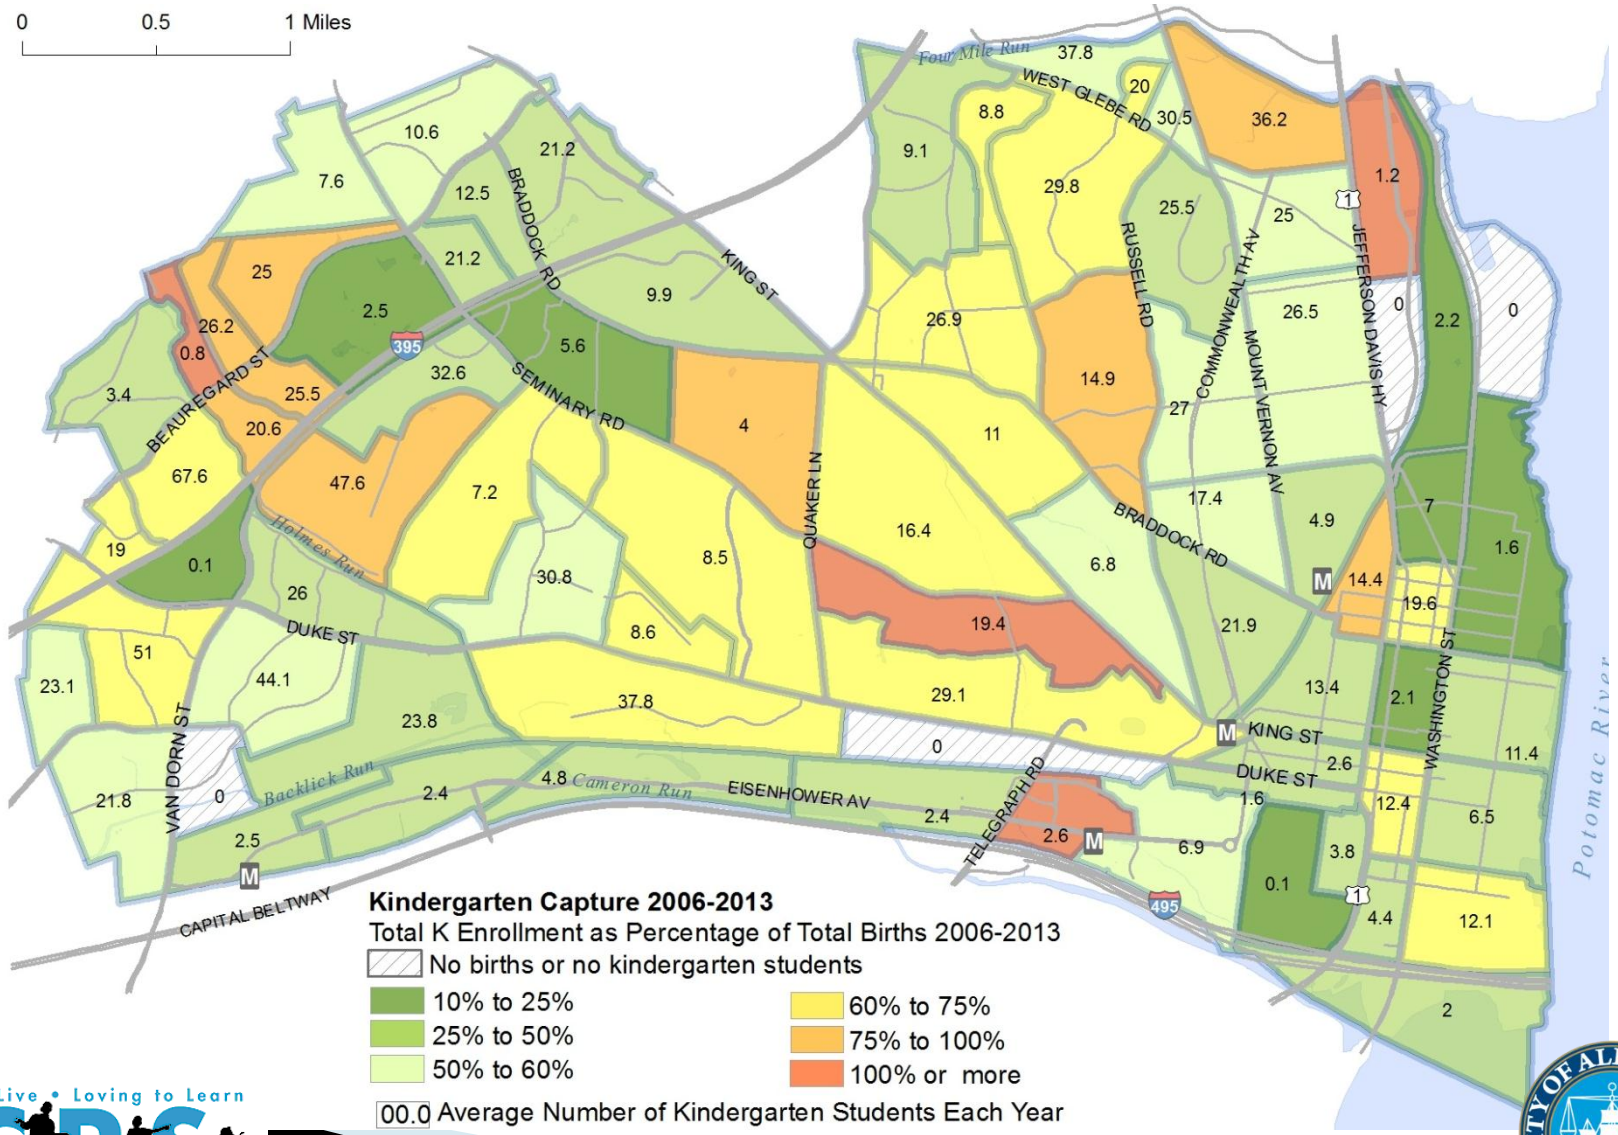


Learning to Live • Loving to Learn
ACPS
Alexandria City Public Schools

Enrollment Change Since 2006

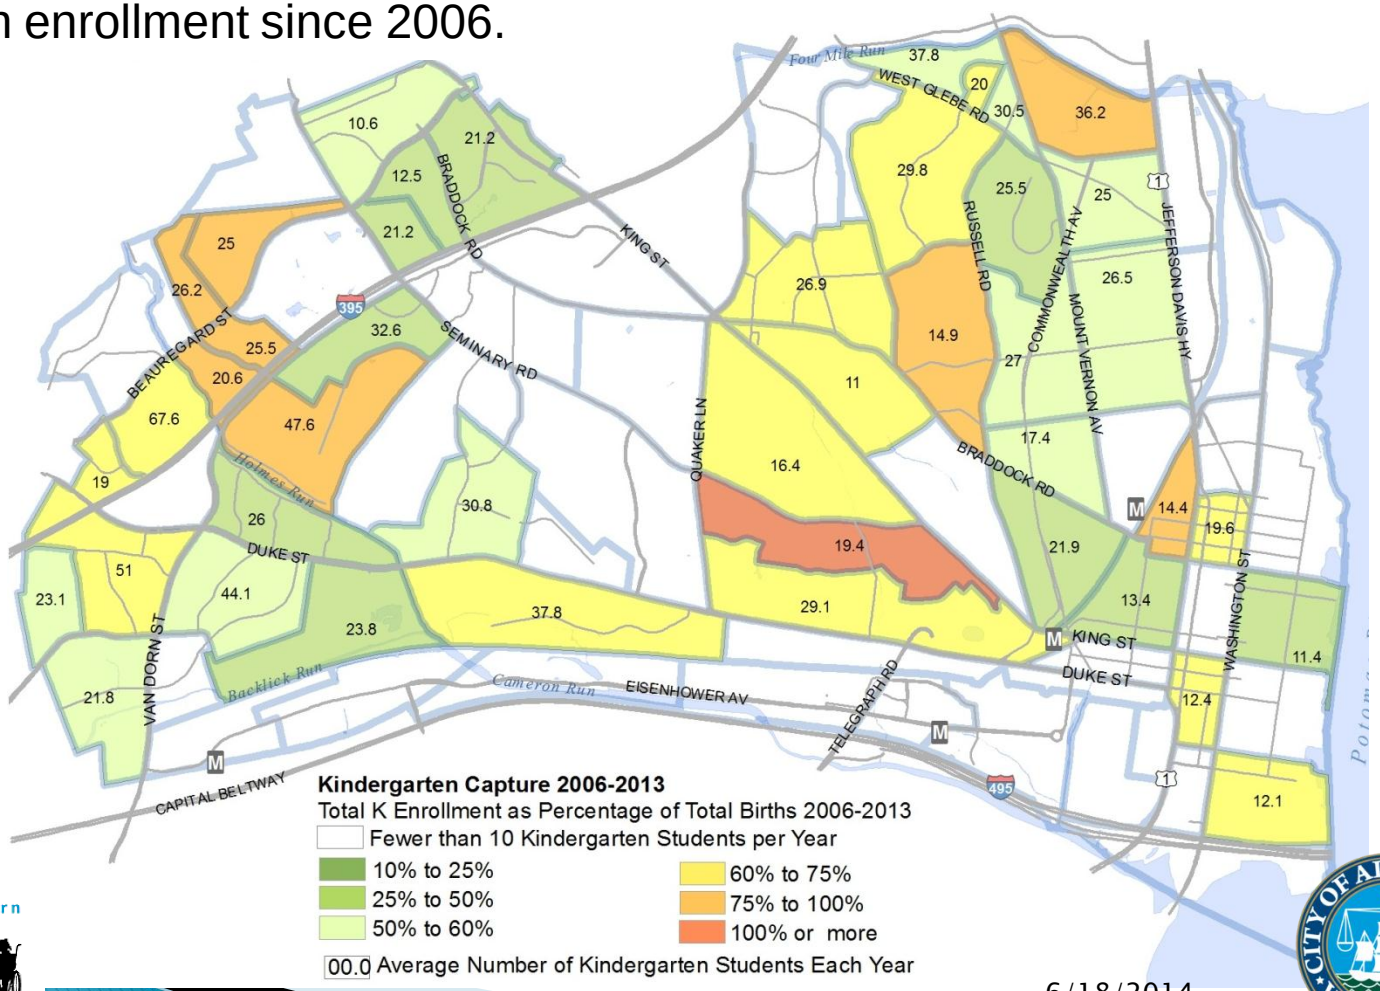


Kindergarten Capture Since 2006



Kindergarten Capture Since 2006

The statistical areas shown in color are responsible for 88% of the growth in kindergarten enrollment since 2006.



Learning to Live • Loving to Learn
ACPS
Alexandria City Public Schools

Forecasting by Geography for Long-Term Forecast

- Relate enrollment trends to population and residential development characteristics
- Forecast enrollment from existing development by geographic area using both enrollment inputs method and generation factors method
- Add net enrollment from new development and redevelopment
- Report forecast by statistical area and enrollment area