Oh what a beautiful day I intend to create
But first I have to DASH out of the door
Because I am running late
Slipped on my flat shoes and locked up my home
Put my purse on my shoulder
Almost left my cell phone
Put my hair in a ponytail, no time to style
Slid down the stair rail like I did when I was child
Ran, jogged, and skipped for a half-mile
Waved at my neighbor and flashed her a smile
The bus was fast approaching
And I was a block away
Oh please bus driver don't leave me today
If I miss this bus, it'll be totally my fault
I waved my hands in her eyesight and created positive thoughts
I approached just when the door were closing
So I shouted, "Don't leave me, please!"
When the doors opened for me
I was so relieved
I can relax now and breathe with ease
Oh what a beautiful day I will create
Thanks to the bus driver, I am no longer late
