A total of 55 stations, spaced 25-50 apart as recommended by installer (Orkin), spacing will slightly vary depending on location and proximity to homes (shall be slightly closer on north and south side for home protection). These stations will be secured to the ground as required by city code. They will need to be moved on occasion to perform various scopes of work.