John Carlyle Park is the last significant urban park space in the Carlyle development. Resulting from the vision and hard work of the landowner, Norfolk Southern, the neighborhood of Carlyle, and the City of Alexandria, this 1.4 acre urban square is privately owned and maintained with a public access easement. The urban park design blends both historic and modern ideas while using ecologically sustainable construction materials and methods.

The City of Alexandria is committed to compliance with the City's Human Rights Code and the Americans with Disabilities Act. To request a reasonable accommodation or to request materials in an alternative format, call the Special Events Office of the Department of Recreation, Parks and Cultural Activities at 703.746.5418 (TTY 703.838.4902).
