

BRAC-133 News Bulletin: October 25, 2011

Emergency Management Information Session: On Thursday, October, 20, the City of Alexandria sponsored a forum on emergency preparedness, attended by approximately 30 residents. The purpose of the forum was to provide participants with an opportunity to discuss current emergency response capabilities in proximity to the BRAC-133 Mark Center facility. City staff presented three emergency scenarios and described the City's response efforts for them. The forum also included a question and answer session for the audience. Participants are encouraged to send any additional questions to Mark.Penn@alexandriava.gov. The City will post the questions and answers on the website soon. For more information, contact Mark Penn at 703.7465.5256.

Traffic Management: The Alexandria Police Department and Sheriff's Office continue to monitor key intersections near BRAC-133. During the morning and afternoon rush hours, police employees and sheriff's deputies are strategically located at several intersections to keep traffic moving and prevent vehicle backups within intersections.

Meeting: The BRAC-133 Advisory Group will host their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, November 16, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. at Beatley Library, 5005 Duke St. For more information, contact David Grover at 703.746.4061.
